Seasons Greetings

As the year draws to a close we look back over 2014 with all its highs and lows.

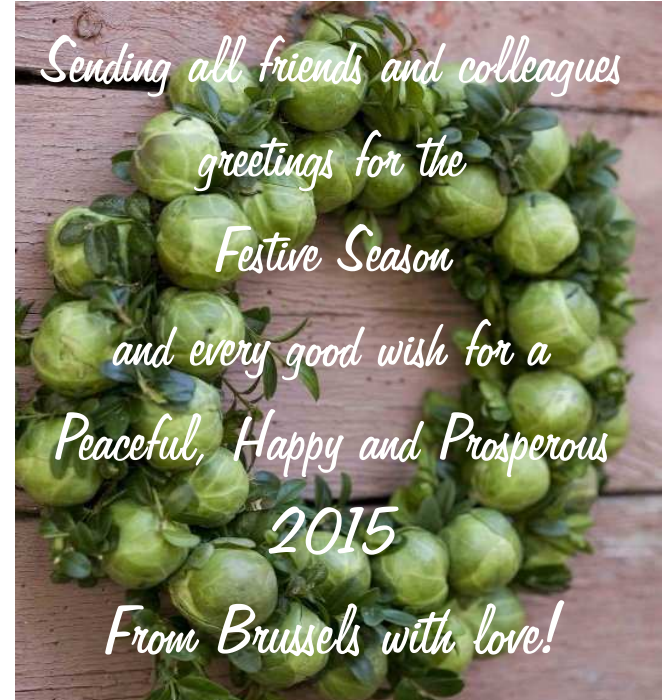

Throughout the year we see so much suffering and human tragedy around the world. This year the human suffering in Syria, Palastine and Ebola in Africa have been particularly heart breaking. We must be grateful we live in a country where we can all too easily take democracy and civil liberties for granted.

Winter is a time of cold dark days and at Christmas we all hold our loved ones close, giving thanks for the good things we have and are fortunate to enjoy together.

Thank you for your support during 2014 and the confidence you have shown in me. Next year will bring its own challenges for us all and I look forward to continuing to work with you and represent you to the very best of my abilities.

I wish you, your family and friends, all the very best for this special time of year and a bright, healthy and happy 2015.

FESTIVE WARNING! Sajjad echoes calls from Trading Standards warning people to beware of loan sharks operating in their neighbourhoods and amongst families and friends.

Loan sharks are illegal money lenders who often prey on vulnerable and hard-up members of the community during the Christmas period. They are notorious for charging enormous amounts of interest over long periods and often use threats and violence to intimidate their victims into coughing up more cash.

Sajjad has urged North West residents to steer clear of these illegal lenders and to report them to Trading Standards immediately.

If you have borrowed from an unlicensed lender you have not broken the law, they have. To report a loan shark you can:

- Call the 24/7 confidential hotline 0300 555 2222 • Text 'loan shark + your message' to 60003
- E-mail reportaloanshark@stoploansharks.gov.uk • Log-on to www.direct.gov.uk/stoploansharks

JUST FOR FUN....

EU Migration — What do you think?

David Cameron has announced proposals to make our immigration system fairer and reduce the current exceptionally high level of migration from within the EU into the UK. (See page 1)

Saj wants to hear your views on this important issue.

Brits should be able to live & work in other EU countries

EU residents can live & work here but benefits should be restricted

I support David Cameron's proposals
